LfV Baden-Wuerttemberg Personnel:

(CONFIDENTIAL) Herman HERZ, Deputy Chief of Section IV (Personnel, Training, etc.), moved to Freiburg on December 9, 1957, where he took over a full-time position handling the organization and planning of all LfV participation in courses at the State Police School. HERZ gives lectures at the police school on LfV activity during all normally scheduled semesters: 48 hours of instruction for new police recruits and some 80 hours for students in advanced police courses. In his new post he will be responsible for orientation courses during regularly scheduled meetings of the various police commissariats in South Wuerttemberg and Baden. His replacement in Section V (Security Branch) is Walter GASCH, his former deputy.
